Advisory Committees to the Board

The Board recognizes the invaluable assistance which can be gained for the entire school district from citizens through their input and cooperation. Therefore, the Board may request the services of citizens to study special problems, issues, or needs of the district. Advisory committee appointments shall be made by the Board President, with approval of the Board.

Advisory committees shall be assigned a specified task and shall make recommendations to the Board upon completion of the task. An advisory committee shall be dissolved after it has presented recommendations to the Board.
