

2023-2024 District Calendar Family & Staff Survey

The River Valley School District is in the process of developing the 2023-2024 district academic calendar. Please take a few brief moments to provide feedback on the following questions. Your input is incredibly valuable and will help shape the calendar design.

Please note as you are considering the calendar that the current draft of the 2023-2024 calendar has students starting school on Friday, September 1, 2023 with the last day scheduled for June 3, 2024.

Thank you in advance for completing this by 8 am on Monday, December 12, 2022.

* Required

1. State law requires that schools in Wisconsin have to start on or after September 1 unless the school qualifies for a waiver to start the school year earlier. Do you support the District requesting a waiver to see if we could qualify for a waiver from DPI to start school prior to September 1, 2023? *

No

2. Do you support starting school the Week of August 21, 2023 or the Week of August 28, 2023?

If we start the Week of August 21, 2023, the last day of school would be before Memorial Day weekend (2024).

If we start the Week of August 28, 2023, the last day of school would be the week after Memorial Day weekend (2024).
