Definition

Bullying is deliberate or intentional behavior using words or actions, intended to cause fear, intimidation, or harm. Bullying typically is repeated over time and involves an imbalance of power. The behavior may be motivated by an actual or perceived distinguishing characteristic, such as, but not limited to: age; national origin; race; ethnicity; religion; gender; gender identity; sexual orientation; physical attributes; physical or mental ability or disability; and social, economic, or family status.

Bullying behavior can be:

1. Physical (e.g. assault, hitting or punching, kicking, theft, threatening behavior)
2. Verbal (e.g. threatening or intimidating language, teasing or name-calling, racist remarks)
3. Indirect (e.g. spreading cruel rumors, intimidation through gestures, social exclusion, and sending insulting messages or pictures by mobile phone or using the internet – also known as cyber bullying)

Procedure for Reporting/Retaliation

All school staff members and school officials who observe or become aware of acts of bullying are required to report these acts to the building principal or the event/activity supervisor. Any other person, including a student who is either a victim of the bullying or is aware of the bullying or any other concerned individual is encouraged to report the conduct.

Reports of bullying may be made verbally or in writing. Use of the District's Student Bullying Report Form (Policy 411.1/411.2 Exhibit 3) is encouraged. Reports may be made confidentially.

Bullying Complaint Investigations

All complaints about behavior that may violate this policy shall be investigated promptly by the building principal or designee. The parents/guardians of the students involved will be informed of the complaint and related investigation.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the principal or designee will prepare a written determination regarding whether bullying occurred. The parents/guardians of the students involved will be notified of the determination.

If the investigation finds that bullying occurred, it will result in prompt and appropriate remedial and/or disciplinary action. This may include student discipline, up to and including suspension or expulsion from school and termination from employment.

If, during an investigation of a reported act of bullying in accordance with this policy, the principal determines that the reported misconduct may constitute harassment or discrimination based on a protected class in violation of Policy 411 – Student Nondiscrimination and Equal Education Opportunity or Policy 411.2 – Student Anti-Harassment, the principal will refer the complaint to a Compliance Officer listed in those policies. The Compliance Officer will determine the complaint procedures that will be followed for the complaint investigation.

There shall be no retaliation against individuals making such reports. Individuals engaging in retaliatory behavior will be subject to disciplinary action as outlined above.
