Definition of a Full-Time Student

Students who meet the qualifications of any of the following categories will be considered to be a full-time student:

1. Students enrolled in grades 4K through 8. Students enrolled in classes during the normal school day, or enrolled in an equivalent alternative program supported by District funds, are considered full-time students. (Kindergarten, Pre-Kindergarten, and Early Childhood students attending half-day sessions will be considered half-time students).
2. High school students enrolled in a minimum of three courses per semester.
3. Students who are involved in cooperative vocational education and spend parts of their school day at work sites in the community.
4. Secondary level students who attend a district school and an institution of higher education for concurrent high school and college credit or credit in the Vocational, Technical, Adult Education (VTAE) system shall be classified as full-time students.
5. Special education students, at any level, who have less than the defined school day if such a schedule is prescribed by an Individualized Education Plan (IEP).
6. Students on approved homebound programs or who are participating in an alternative educational program or other program of curriculum modifications approved by the student's parent/guardian and school district officials; or a resident student attending public school in another school district under the full-time public school open enrollment law.
