Student Discipline

The behavior of students attending River Valley Schools shall reflect standards of good citizenship, self-discipline, responsibility for one's own actions and respect toward others. Rules of behavior and discipline extend from the classroom to all school property, school buses, and school sponsored events whether or not on school property.

Positive discipline is a necessary element and provides all students with a healthy learning environment. All students will be assisted in every way possible to achieve scholastic success.

A basic disciplinary code of conduct shall be established in Board policy. Under this policy the elementary schools, middle school, and high school shall all establish their own methods and procedures for a disciplinary process. These rules and procedures shall be made available on an annual basis.

Current disciplinary procedures utilize PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports) and SOLAR (Solution Oriented Learning, Accountability, and Restoration)

The River Valley School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, gender, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or disability in standards or rules of behavior or disciplinary measures or in its programs and activities and provides equal access to the Boy Scouts and other designated youth groups. The following people have been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Business Manager, 660 W. Daley, Street, Spring Green, WI 53588, 608-588-2551, and Pupil Services Director, 660 Varsity Blvd., Spring Green, WI 53588, 608-588-2554.

Complaints alleging sexual harassment occurring before August 1, 2024, are governed by policies 411.3 and 511.2. Complaints alleging discrimination on the basis of sex (including sex-based harassment) occurring after August 1, 2024, are governed by policy 411.5/511.3.

Complaints regarding the interpretation or application of this policy shall be referred to the building principal and processed in accordance with established procedures.
