STANDARD 38.14 SERVICE AGREEMENT PROVISIONS

Instructional materials developed at customer expense may be used at customer discretion. It is understood that Southwest Wisconsin Technical College retains the rights to any curriculum materials used or developed as part of this agreement with the exception of any customer proprietary material. Southwest Wisconsin Technical College employees performing under this contract remain under the exclusive control of the District.

The Recipient of Services certifies, as party to this contract, that it does not discriminate against employees, enrollees, or applicants for employment or enrollment on the basis of age, race, color, sex, creed, handicap, political persuasion, or sexual orientation except where there is a bona fide occupational qualification.

Accommodations for any current High School student that is enrolled in a contracted class through Southwest Wisconsin Technical College will be the responsibility of the contracted high school to provide and pay for the accommodations.

Cancellation of this contract may be made up to 30 days before the beginning date of the contract. Cancellation must be made in writing to Southwest Tech. Any cancellation notifications made with less than 30 days until the beginning date of the contract holds the Recipient of Services responsible for payment of the contract in full.

This agreement is subject to retroactive approval by the SWTC District Board at its next meeting. Per the authority delegated by the District Board to the approved representative to initiate contracts, Southwest Wisconsin Technical College agrees to provide the service in this agreement subject to the conditions of the agreement.

Any royalties generated from material developed, pursuant to this agreement, and subject to copyright, will be distributed in accordance to conditions specified in this agreement.

Fiscal and programmatic modifications may be made as mutually agreed to by the parties involved.
