My Opt-In Preferences

College Discovery *

Colleges, scholarship programs, and lenders are looking for students like you. Here's how it works: Once you say we are allowed to do so, we will make some of the information you provide to Parchment available to a variety of colleges and programs. Then the colleges and programs send you information about themselves, so you can see if they fit your college plans. Colleges cannot find you at Parchment unless you chose to opt-in. Opting-in will not share your transcript with anyone unless you chose to do so.

Yes, share the information I provide with those colleges looking to discover me at Parchment.

No, I do not want to participate in College Discovery. Do not share any of my information with those colleges that may be interested in me.

Parchment Newsletter *

Yes, send me the Parchment email newsletter

No, do not send me emails (Parchment may still send emails that are part of the service)

FERPA Privacy Rights

In addition to transcripts, your school may send a Secondary School Report or Letter of Recommendation. Some receiving schools will give more weight to recommendations and completed SSR forms where the student has agreed the documents will be private and the student will not view them. If you wish to waive your right to review those documents, you may do so below.

Under the 1974 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, an applicant who is admitted and enrolls has the right to review his/her educational files including recommendations. To obtain confidential recommendations for the purposes of admission and academic counseling only, it is possible to waive one's right of access.

The form includes a title, an introductory paragraph explaining the need for authorization, a paragraph about how the authorization is stored, and a section for the user's name and date of birth. Below this is a section for the Parchment Registration Code, which includes a text input field and a link for users who have lost their PIN. The form also contains a paragraph stating that the user is authorizing Parchment Inc. to release their transcript, followed by a large signature box with a blue "X" and a "Clear Signature" button. The browser's status bar at the bottom right shows a zoom level of 124%.

Transcript Authorization Form

Federal regulations require that we receive your signature before we can process the transcript request for John Jones. Your authorization will allow your transcript to be delivered to destinations that you designate that are not included in our database of authorized destinations. Your authorization may be given by using a Parchment Registration Number if one was issued to you or by signing the form using your mouse or stylus. Once authorized we can process all of the transcript requests for John Jones.

Parchment will keep the authenticated form on file and you will not be required to sign it again when you place additional requests for transcripts from this school. Of course, you will be able to withdraw this authorization at any time by signing into your account and accessing his preferences.

John Jones
